QUESTION NO: 10 Company Background Corporate Information Grooveware, Inc. is a large manufacturing company which produces furniture. Physical Locations Grooveware has an office which is located in New York. There are 180 employees in the New York office. Existing Environment Existing Licensing Solution Under OEM agreements and Open License agreements, Grooveware purchases Microsoft software licenses.

Existing IT Environment

The company has configured each employee with a desktop computer. Different versions of Microsoft Windows and different versions of Microsoft Office are installed on these desktops.

Business Requirements

Planned Changes

After consideration, the company plans to implement Windows SharePoint Services.

The company intends to standardize the operating system versions to Windows XP Professional in the next three years. But the company has no intention to upgrade to Windows Vista during this time period. Grooveware decides that it is unnecessary to keep new version rights for server products.

Planned changes In the next four years, Grooveware plans to replace all desktops, upgrade e-mail services to Exchange Server 2007, upgrade all servers to the current version of Windows Server.

Problem Statements The company's software purchases are unplanned and improperly documented.

Business Goals

Grooveware aims to achieve the following business goals:

Own software licenses perpetually

Have easy access to verifiable license documentation

Standardize on the current version of desktop applications

Minimize the upfront cost of upgrading desktop applications

Offer all employees access to Unified Messaging in Exchange Server 2007

Allow flexibility to buy new versions of server licenses, with or without Software Assurance
